Silverline Core-Plus Fund

Quarterly Report — First Quarter 2026

Silverline Capital Management • Open-End Core-Plus Diversified Fund • Vintage 2016

Portfolio Manager Commentary

The Fund returned approximately –0.6% net for the quarter. Income of $0.19 million was offset by roughly $0.39 million of depreciation, largely in the office allocation. Net asset value was approximately $49.6 million at quarter-end.

Investments Impacting Performance

Two suburban office assets in the Mid-Atlantic were written down on extended lease-up assumptions. The Fund's industrial and residential holdings were broadly stable. Leverage remains elevated at 50.8% LTV, the highest in the Program.

Outlook

The Manager is prioritising deleveraging and has suspended new acquisitions pending two planned dispositions in the second half of 2026.
